VOL. IV. RALEIGH, N. C., TUESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1868. NO. 5.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

THADDEUS STEVENS.

Among the various estimates of Mr. Stevens' character and career, the following, which we find in the New York Herald, will, we think, generally be regarded as just:

"Thad. Stevens was unquestionably a power in the land. To him, with his intense expression of the most virulent prejudices against the originators of the unsuccessful secessionist movement, is chiefly due the delay of that restoration of the Union which was the ostensible object of our late civil war. In September, 1865, when the echoes of hostile cannon had hardly ceased to reverberate, Mr. Stevens, in a public speech at Lancaster, declared his policy of reconstruction. He held that the South had committed no treason, but was a conquered foreign power, and was therefore to be condemned to what, with a grim humor, he styled "mild confiscation." Of its three hundred and ninety four million acres of land, forty millions, he contended, should be given to the emancipated negroes in forty acres each, and the proceeds of the sale of the remainder, estimated at three thousand five hundred and forty million dollars, should be applied to the extinction of the national debt. When the President and Congress declared war against each other, Mr. Stevens became, as he continued to be to the last, one of the fiercest antagonists of Mr. Johnson. His angry shaking and snapping of the lash over the Senators whom he failed to coerce into adhesion to his impeachment policy proved more effectual with the House of Representatives. In the House of Representatives he was the acknowledged leader of the Republican members, many of whom surpassed him in ability, but none of them in audacity, and, we must perhaps allow, in sincerity. This one virtue his worst enemies must accord to him—the courage of an openly avowed hostility. The fact is that Thad. Stevens was, almost independently of his own volition, an instrument for expressing and for working out the predestined purposes of the revolution through which the American people are passing. Malevolent, even malignant, as he appeared to be and was in his capacity as a public man, his friends represent him as courteous and genial in his private intercourse with them. Publicly he was an evil, but a necessary evil, and one naturally engendered by his antecedents and circumstances. Accepted, therefore, as a topical representative of the party which recognized him as its autocrat, he must always hold a historical position.

Nor will the death of Mr. Stevens result in consequences less important and historical than the position which he held while alive. It was his marvellous obstinacy, his Hannibal-like animosity against the South, which postponed the settlement of our national difficulties. His death, however much it may be lamented by his immediate personal friends, and by his party, sounds the death knell of the extravagant hopes of the Radicals. It was he alone, whose firm will held together the most refractory among his partisans. Now that the control of his influence no longer exists, what is to hinder the disintegration of the party to which Mr. Stevens, more than any other Republican leader, had given concentration and force? His arrogance as a party leader had already received a double check in the failure of impeachment, and in the postponement of the impeachment resolutions which he revived after the arrival in Washington of several new representatives of the Southern States, whom he regarded as irrevocably committed to his own revengeful policy. While we fully recognize the talents and the strong individuality of the late Thaddeus Stevens, and even whatever merit there may be in the honesty of his open and avowed hostility to all his opponents, we must regard his removal by death as a misfortune to his party rather than to the nation.

THE CARPET-BAGGERS.—This funny brood of obscene birds, who have taken their flight to this region, and squatted (if we may use that word in speaking of a bird) in all the counties of the State,—we wish to give or get the biography of each and all of them. We therefore desire, and we beg our friends in each county and neighborhood, to give us every possible particular relating to each of these interesting animals. We desire an exact description of the person; the size, material and contents of their carpet-bags; their name or names, whether an alias or the same they had in the land they left for that land's good; the place of their nativity; when they came here; what they profess to have come for and what they really came for; what offices they are seeking; how many poor negroes they have swindled of their last dime, and any other particulars which, being published, will enable the friends they left behind them to recognize some old acquaintances. The additional information which these facts may elicit from where they are too well known, may supply materials for the most interesting biographical dictionary ever compiled. The thought of editing this work is very refreshing to us.—Richmond Whig.

BUTLER AND A "SPOON" SCENE ON BROADWAY.—There was a scene in Broadway this afternoon such as a flaneur but seldom meets with, even in that thoroughfare. An ugly looking man came turning out of Grand Street, into Broadway, when all at once a brigade of boys, boot-blacks, errand boys, gamins and all, set up a chorus of "spoons," "stop thief," "how are you spoons," &c. &c. On turning around one readily beheld the ugly face of Benjamin F. Butler. He apparently was ill at ease as the epithets continually handled about his ears, and his face became pale with anger as he went along the sidewalk with a horde of boys behind him, pointing their fingers at him, as only boys can point fingers, and calling out "spoons, spoons." Well must that man have felt miserable when, at every step he progressed, he was thus made aware how his countrymen despise him. For not the least effort was made to stop the "spoon" chorus o the boys, and every passer by, at once noticing Butler, seemed to approve of the boys' doings and enjoy the fun amazingly. Butler himself, however, soon got sick of it, could stand it no longer, and jumped into an omnibus to escape the continuance of the spontaneous demonstration.—N. Y. Letter.

An old Jew while indulging in a morsel of forbidden food, was overtaken by a terrific thunder storm, and as the thunder roared and the lightning flashed around, he cried—"Plesh my soul, vot a pother apout a leetle pit of bork."

A CARD.

SEVERAL months ago I purchased the entire stock of goods owned by BRANSON, FARRAR & CO., and continued the business, changing the name of my trade to Branson & Jones, advertising myself as Proprietor and Mr. Branson as Agent in the N. C. Business Directory. But as some persons seem, erroneously, to consider it a partnership, or to bind the interest of the former firm with my own, I shall henceforth conduct the business under my own name alone, unless some partner should be taken hereafter. Mr. Branson will continue to be General Agent for the N. C. Directory, which will necessarily engage most of his time and attention.

I shall be pleased to furnish our friends and the public with BOOKS STATIONERY, SHEET MUSIC and other articles in our line, at lowest cash prices.

GRANT AND COLFAX, WAR AND REVOLUTION—SEYMOUR AND BLAIR, LAW, CIVIL LIBERTY AND PEACE.

One of the most amusing speculations connected with the present canvass, is the seriousness with which Chief Justice Pearson and others, who, months ago, co-operated with the Conservatives of this State, have joined in the rebel Radical clamor that the success of the Democratic Conservative ticket means war. The letter of Gen. Blair, prior to the meeting of the National Democratic Convention, is the ostensible reason for this groundless clamor. Written more with the view of directing and arousing public attention to the actual situation of affairs in the South, than to assert or lay down any party principle or programme, it has spread dismay and alarm among the rebel-Radicals and dumb-founded the timid and the weak kneed, who much prefer to lie down under the pander and tyranny of the revolutionary car of Radicalism, than to stand up manfully for the restoration of the Constitution and the Union and the maintenance of civil liberty.

The Democrats and Conservatives of North Carolina are bound by no positions, or principles, or programmes of individuals, but by the platform of principles set forth in the official declarations of the National Democratic Convention. Is there any war in that platform? Is it not plain, it war is there, which we by no means anticipate, (for the whole country has had enough of it,) it must be forced upon the Democrats and Conservatives by the Radical party?

That is strictly the only war party in the country. It has steadily pursued its revolutionary anti-constitutional policy for three years, and made war upon the Constitution, the Union and the liberties of the people ever since the war closed. The Democrats and Conservatives have constantly declared the war at an end, and they have insisted upon a peace policy on the part of the government, but the Radicals have, all the time, been for war. The Reconstruction Acts have been purely a war policy, antagonistic to the Constitution and violative of all its principles. The chief leader of the Radical party, Thaddeus Stevens, boldly declared that the Reconstruction policy of Congress was "outside of the Constitution"—that it could not be defended under the Constitution. According to Chief Justice Pearson, it can not be justified as in accordance with the Constitution,—is "extra-constitutional," but not "unconstitutional"!!! Can logic reconcile the manifest discrepancy? If "extra-constitutional," did Congress have the right to pass them? Are not those acts revolutionary, and the body which passed them a revolutionary body, and hence its acts unconstitutional?

HON. NAT. BOYDEN.

Every Conservative and Democrat in North Carolina is proud of the course of Hon. Nathaniel Boyden in the House of Representatives, at Washington, during the short time he was there. He was elected as a sound, reliable Conservative, a friend and supporter of the Constitution and the Union, and of law, order and of liberty. His whole course in Congress indicates that he understood, appreciated and endorsed the views of the Conservatives and Democrats, by whom he was elected.

Since his return home, we have heard nothing from him as to his position. The Radicals are busily circulating the rumor that Mr. Boyden is out for Grant and Colfax. We believe they misrepresent Mr. Boyden. He is too frank a man to conceal his views from his constituents, if they have undergone a change.

One thing is certain, that neither Mr. Boyden, nor any other man, can receive the support of the Conservatives and Democrats of his District, without a frank endorsement and support of the New York National Democratic Convention and its nominees. He must go heart and soul for Seymour and Blair, or he cannot get the nomination for Congress, if he wants it. In view of the complications in this matter, brought about by the statements of Radicals, it is time he had publicly stated his position.

THE NEGROES AND THE CARPET-BAGGERS.

It cannot have escaped notice that the riotous demonstrations, made during our late Convention, were almost exclusively confined to the youngsters of the African race, who are not yet out of their teens—Their fathers have learned manners in a better school, and, to their great credit, on this occasion, as on most others, have not forgotten their early teachings. Great pity it is, that the Bureau teachers could not share in the kind feelings which once existed between the different colors throughout the land, and instruct their pupils in manners, as well as in reading and writing. With the older people of color, there will be little difficulty or danger. We know them and they know us. They understand our character, and know what is due to their own. They are almost uniformly polite; and though most of them have been deluded into associations calculated to estrange and embitter their feelings towards those of our race, with whom kind relations would otherwise have existed, quite as much to their advantage as ours, still, in the exercise of their new born freedom, we have been disposed to indulge them in some extravagances of sentiment and action,—being fully conscious that we, in their place, would hardly have done better. They have sense enough to know, that we are their real friends; and we know that the best of them will come back at last, and that the old feelings of confidence will be again restored. It is in their nature and in the nature of things.

But what will become of this young army of youngsters, who are taught to believe that impudence and ill-manners to others constitute freedom, is a problem yet to be solved. They, as a class, have ab jured all labor, as well as those of the other sex of their age. The boys go to school, and, with proper instruction, might become useful hereafter; the girls, as a class, from 15 to 20, scorn all labor; and their hourly displays on our streets, by day and by night, tell a sad tale of depravity and abandonment, to which, in other days, though bad enough, then, they were comparative strangers. When the present generation passes away, and these idle, boisterous and dissolute youngsters fill their vacant places, there will come horrors, of which those, who now encourage their misbehavior, little dream. If the vengeance could fall on the really guilty heads, there would be some little comfort in that. But these worthies, each with his carpet-bag laden with spoils, will have passed away, too,—gone back to his original home, and the sons of the soil will be left to work out the problem as best they may.

These strangers have no sympathy with the native whites. They have no love for the blacks, except so far as they can use them. Even this love will not last always. Our colored people know them to be intensely selfish. They well enough understand the difference between them and well bred gentlemen. They are now bound together in leagues, and by very improper oaths; but we know that it is for the purpose, as they understand it, of making sure and perpetuating their own rights. It is not for the purpose of humiliating gentlemen, whom, in their hearts, they respect and honor. They do not ask that their old friends—(and they were their true friends, and so continue in spite of great provocations)—should be choked to death by interlopers from the North, or from any where else. They do not ask that gentlemen should fall on their knees before strangers—nor before any one else but the Great God. They would not listen with patience to the following infamously unchristian and vile language, twanged through the long sharp nose of pilgrim wanderers, who come here to rule us, by using them. And yet the following words were published in the Standard of last Saturday, and were written down by a carpet-bagger, who admits that his residence in North Carolina has been for only six weeks! Hear him:

"We tell you, decrepid, back broken old rebels! that your days are numbered. We are willing that you should gasp a little, and, therefore, look on your feeble efforts to rise from your backs with pity and compassion. But attempt to rise higher than your knees, or to assume any other attitude than that of prayer, and you will be thrust back to the earth, never to rise again."

PRESIDENT JOHNSON.—The Radicals are claiming that President Johnson is in favor of the Grant and Colfax ticket. This is positively denied by the well informed and reliable correspondents of the Baltimore Sun and New York World. No one expects the President to take a very active part in the election, but his sympathies are entirely with Seymour and Blair, and the Democratic and Conservative platform. Most of the Cabinet are said, by the same authority, to be decided for Seymour and Blair.

THE CHARLESTON News informs us that for three months past, bodies of armed negroes have been drilling at four different places in Charleston, and as these gatherings are in obscure quarters of the town, and under the cover of night, there is but one rational conclusion to be drawn from the fact,

THE Southern Opinion truly says that the blacks have been industriously taught the religion of hate of the white man by the vilest reptiles ever brought to the surface by the throes of civil war.

Montana, following in the wake of Oregon and Kentucky, has given a largely increased Democratic majority. Everywhere—in every direction whence comes the news of an election, important or unimportant—the channels of public information are laden with the reports of Democratic victories and gains. Over fifteen hundred gain in Oregon, in one year, in a voting population of only twenty thousand! Over forty thousand Democratic gain in the single State of Kentucky!

George E. Spencer, the carpet-bag U. S. Senator from Alabama, was suter to the 1st Nebraska regiment.

GRANT says "Let us have peace." What does he mean but that the "Empire is peace!"

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

BY AUTHORITY OF CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

SENATE.

MONDAY, Aug. 17, 1868.

Senate was called to order at 9½ o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Hudson, of the M. E. Church.

Mr. Love arose to a question of privilege, and said:

I regret, Mr. Speaker, to trouble the Senate with any matter of a personal character. But there is a "bummer" in Western North Carolina, weekly shooting small shot at me, from his skulking place in the bushes, through the "Pioneer," a paper published at Asheville, in this State. This is not his first, and I should not notice it now, his efforts are so contemptible, but for the fact, that I find an extract from one of his communications, this morning, in the Standard—the recognized organ of the Republican party in this City—touching my legal qualifications for a seat on this floor. I doubt not the extract is fairly made.

When I came here, I did not know whether I was banned or not,—did not know what the ruling would be. I made a statement here, on the floor of the Senate, and again before the Committee on Credentials, of my case. That statement was true in substance and in detail. A Republican member of Congress espoused my cause, as stated, as did the Senator from Johnston, who moved that my credentials be taken from the table, that I might qualify. This was decided out of order. A few days later, however, the Committee decided unanimously, and as one, that I was entitled to my seat.

Now, sir, I shall dispose of this matter in a brief way. The author of this article, who skulks in the dark behind a fictitious name, is a poltroon, a scoundrel and a liar.

"Mr. Speaker, I am alarmed at the condition of the country. It is proposed to send arms to North Carolina; that the people may use them against each other. Great God! we cannot afford to fight each other. "KEEP AWAY YOUR ARMS! DO NOTHING TO IRRITATE OUR PEOPLE, BUT DO EVERYTHING IN YOUR POWER TO ASSUAGE AND HEAL THE EXCITEMENT THERE. We want no arms. I WARN THE HOUSE THAT IF ARMS ARE SENT THERE WE WILL BE RUINED; we cannot live there. If we need anything in the way of arms, in God's name send an army of the United States there, but do not arm neighbor against neighbor. There never was a more mischievous measure than this proposition to arm one class of our people against another."—Mr. Boyden's speech in the House of Representatives.

GEN. J. K. BARNES, at 2 o'clock in the morning, was awakened from sleep by the announcement that Stevens was dead, and his last words were: "Send to the Surgeon-General and have me pickled and sent home." So Gen. Barnes embalmed him, and determined to vote the Seymour and Blair ticket.

The carpet baggers are mentioned by Job, when speaking of a certain class of warhorses. "They snuffed the battle afar off."

DIED:

At her residence in Pittsboro', on Thursday, July 30th, 1868, Mrs. ELIZA LONG, consort of Isaac Long, in her fiftieth year. The deceased died of Typhoid Fever, after an illness of fourteen days, during which time she endured her affliction with true Christian fortitude and resignation. Some twenty years since, she professed the religion of Christ, and, joining the Methodist Episcopal Church, remained a consistent member of the same until the Lord called her from the Church militant on earth to the Church triumphant above.

The writer of this humble tribute to her virtues was intimately acquainted with her for a period of near twenty five years and can well bear testimony to her humility, politeness, kindness of heart, and Christian deportment having so repeatedly witnessed exhibitions of kindness manifested to those with whom she was associated.—The death of a good citizen is at all times a severe loss to the community in which he or she may reside; but the removal of such an one as she, so kind, so gentle and so charitable, creates a hiatus that cannot soon be filled.

To her bereaved husband and children her loss is irreparable; but they "sorrow not as those without hope," knowing that their loss is her eternal gain.

"Hope, with uplifted foot set free from earth,
Paints for the place of her ethereal birth;
On steady wings sails through the immense abyss,
Plucks amaranthine flowers from bowers of bliss,
And crowns the soul, while yet a mourner here
With wreaths like those triumphant spirits wear."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We invite special attention to the announcement of the Universal Life Insurance Company, New York, of which Caldwell & Brenizer, Charlotte, are the General Agents for North Carolina. For a detail of the advantages afforded by this Company we refer the reader to the article, in another column, from the Charlotte Times.

A young lady of Woodlawn, Gaston Co., desires a situation as a Teacher. See advertisement.

Valuable Farm in Greene county for sale: Apply to W. H. Jones & Co.

Nice N. C. Hams and Sides: W. H. Jones & Co.

Seymour & Blair and Grant & Colfax Badges: W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.—The sale of the valuable real estate advertised by Wm. S. Mason, Esq., Commissioner, to take place before the Court House in this city, it will be seen, is postponed until to-day, the 18th of August, instead of the 17th of October, as announced by mistake in Saturday's issue.

"I HAVE GIVEN a whole week to the cause," we heard a lady of this city proudly remark, a day or two since, in allusion to her own labors, and that of the other patriotic ladies, in the decoration of Tucker Hall, &c. When such a glorious spirit actuates the fair women of the land, who can doubt our success?

THE EMPIRE is beginning. The Republican "Governor" of North Carolina, already, is driven about the streets by a coachman in livery—if a seedy beaver, with a faded silver band around it, can be called "livery." To most folks, it appears that while the ambition is great, the execution is deplorably bad.

FACETIOUS.—It is rumored that Gen. Littlefield is the joker, the facetious editor of the rebel Radical organ in this city.—We would like to know who is the Baron Munchausen editor of that print. There is evidently a considerable "division of labor."

PEACHES.—We learn that Rev. Dr. Smith has purchased the peach crop of several gentlemen in this vicinity, and that they are being shipped daily, from the old Raleigh and Gaston Depot, to Philadelphia. They are put up in wooden cages that hold a bushel. We wish the enterprising purchaser every success.

FRUIT INJURED.—The excessive drought and heat, and the subsequent rains, have seriously injured all our fruit and vegetable crops in this section. We have never seen peaches, apples and tomatoes rot so readily or so generally before.

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR BADGES.—A young gentleman of this City has ordered from the North, and received, a lot of tasteful and beautiful Seymour and Blair Pin Badges. Clubs, or individuals, will be supplied by addressing Box 452, Raleigh Post-Office. Price—25 cts. each, or $2 per dozen.

THE STATE CREDIT.

Within the past week, the bogus Legislature has exhibited an unwonted liberality. And why not? Has not the State a plenty of money? Has she not an unbounded credit? We are informed that an attempt has been made to stretch the credit of the State six millions more than her present liabilities, in the extension of Charters to Railroads, &c.

On Saturday last, Judge Osborne, and several others of the Conservative Senators, and a few of the Radicals, presented a protest against the passage of the new Chatham Railroad bill, appropriating the additional sum of $2,000,000, &c. It was our purpose to give our readers, to-day, the protest in full, but all the efforts of our Reporter to obtain it have proven abortive.—Unless the necessity for its publication shall be prevented, our readers shall be put in possession of it just as soon as we can obtain it.

A very objectionable bill for funding the interest of the State was forced through the House, on yesterday, by the use of the gag law. It provides another berth for a carpet bagger, by the appointment of a fiscal Agent to reside in New York.

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR MEETINGS.

BERTIE.—On Saturday, the 10th., a flag of extra size and beauty was hoisted in Windsor, with the names of Seymour and Blair on it. There was an universal turnout of the people and intense enthusiasm prevailed,—occasional discharges of cannon greatly enlivening the scene. A Seymour and Blair Club was formed, of which Dr. W. T. Sutton was elected President, M. Vernooy Vice President, and Richard Askew Secretary. The concourse was addressed by Messrs. P. H. Winston, Melford Vernooy, S. B. Spruill, Jos. B. Cherry and J. L. Mitchell.

ROCKINGHAM.—A Seymour and Blair Club was formed at Leaksville, on the 10th. The meeting was ably addressed by J. W. Burton, Esq. The following gentlemen were chosen officers of the Club, viz: President, Dr. A. B. Johns; Vice-Presidents, Jno. Moir, Esq., and Capt. Thos. Pratt; Secretary, N. S. Smith; Treasurer, J. P. Dillard; Corresponding Secretary, Chas. E. Kluge. The second and fourth Saturdays in each month were fixed for the meetings of the Club.

HARTFORD.—There was a very large ratification meeting of the citizens of this county on the 5th. Dr. R. H. Shield presided and Geo. W. Beverly was Secretary. The meeting was ably addressed by Hon. W. N. H. Smith, and by Messrs. Pruden and Jernigan, talented young men of the county. Patriotic resolutions were adopted, delegates to the District Convention were appointed, and the immense meeting adjourned with three enthusiastic cheers for Seymour and Blair.

BEAUFORT.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens of this county was held in Washington, on the 8th., to respond to the nomination of Seymour and Blair.—Jno. C. Gorham was called to the Chair and Wm. H. Patrick was Secretary. An excellent series of resolutions was adopted. Able and instructive addresses were made by Col. D. M. Carter, F. B. Satterthwaite, Esq., and Thomas Sparrow, Esq.

GEN. CANBY has arrived at Washington and assumed the command of that Department. Military District No. 2. "swapped the devil for a witch," when President Johnson removed Sickles and sent Canby. Canby, Meade, and others of the Commanders, have shown themselves to be military tyrants, but poor civic administrators.—They know something of the art of war, but are as ignorant as beetles of the arts and of the essential conditions of peace.

PACIFIC RAILROAD.—It is said to be probable that nearly 1000 miles of the Union Pacific Railroad will be in running order the present year, and that the entire line will be open to the Pacific for business, in 1869. Seven hundred and fifty miles are completed, now, beyond or from Omaha.

FOURTEEN colored citizens of Salisbury have organized themselves into a Seymour and Blair Club. In Charlotte, the number of colored Democrats and Conservatives is large and daily increasing. Every where there is gratifying evidence that the negroes are beginning to find out their true interests, before it shall be too late.

SOMEWHERE in Australia they have a class of Magistrates called "Windmill Magistrates," owing to their having to sign X. The resemblance to the arms of a Windmill causes the application. Under the Holden regime, we have hundreds of Windmill Squires among us. Let them be so designated.

EUROPEAN WAR.—Leading Continental journals strongly anticipate a war, ere long, between France and Prussia. The feeling of the people is one of anxiety and unrest. They look forward to some violent concussion of the nations.

THADDEUS STEVENS was visited in his last moments by two Sisters of Charity, and Sister Loretta administered to him the rite of baptism.

MEDICAL COLLEGE OF VA.—The announcement of the next Term of this admirable Southern Institution will be found in the Sentinel.

By the way, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted by the Medical Society of North Carolina, at its late annual meeting in Warrenton:

WHEREAS, Since the last meeting of this Society, Dr. Otis F. Manson, one of our permanent members, has been called to the Chair of General Pathology and Pathological Anatomy in the Medical College of Virginia, be it therefore,

Resolved, That we are gratified to learn that Dr. Manson has won this well-merited distinction in his new home, and that we are proud of his success. While we regret his removal from our State, it is our pleasure to commend him as a gentleman, and a scientific and accomplished physician, worthy in all respects of the position he has been called to fill.

FIFTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

CHANGE OF APPOINTMENT.

We are requested to announce that the delegates from the several counties composing the 5th Congressional District will assemble in Greensboro', on Tuesday, the 8th day of September next, instead of the 3rd, as heretofore announced, to select a Presidential Elector and a candidate for Congress.

FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

We are requested to announce that the delegates from the several counties composing the Fourth Congressional District will assemble at Fayetteville, on Thursday, the 10th of September next, to select a Presidential Elector and a candidate for Congress for the District.

IN GEORGIA the Democrats claim that they will get, at least, 40,000 of the 96,000 negro votes of that State.

THE first bale of new cotton at Savannah was received there on the 13th inst.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

HOLDEN'S APPOINTMENTS—THE PROSPECT IN WAYNE,—CROPS, &c.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Aug. 14th, 1868.

Editors Sentinel:—"The man who writes himself Governor" has made his appointments of municipal officers for Goldsboro—and such a list! Two negroes, two carpet-baggers, (who already hold various other offices,) and one scallawag, compose the Board of Commissioners. It is rumored that one of the negroes, who has more principle than the scallawag leaders, declines the appointment, and that another scallawag has or will be put in his place. In the list of magistrates for Wayne County, I understand there are NINE NEGROES, some of whom can neither read or write.

Thus it is, that "the man who writes himself Governor" endeavors to satisfy his vengeance against the white people of the State. He thinks to degrade them for their refusal to support his aspirations for office, but it will only react on himself. Wayne county will give a good account of herself in the coming election. We have Seymour and Blair Clubs in the various voting precincts, and the colored people are beginning to open their eyes to the true condition of things, and see that it is best for them to go with the whites among whom they have lived so long.

Our crop prospects are very fine, and with the election of Seymour and Blair in November, we look forward to the coming year as one of peace and plenty.

Respectfully,

DEMOCRAT.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

This Company, represented by Caldwell & Brenizer, General Agents for North and South Carolina, was organized nearly four years since in New York city, on the "Joint Stock Plan," which is a low rate of premium for a certain sum assured, in lieu of a high rate of premium and a promised dividend, which is contingent and uncertain, this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first place. This plan of insurance has been so favorably received that two companies have since been started in the State of New York (doing a local business only,) and two others are about to be put into operation in England.

This Company is backed by a large cash capital, large and rapidly increasing assets, and the private property of the stockholders, to the amount of twenty-five million dollars, all which personal property, under the laws of New York, is liable for every dollar of the obligations of the Company. Such men as W. V. Brady, Ex-Mayor of New York, Robt. Lenox Kennedy, Henry B. Hyde, and Chas. H. Russell, President National Bank of Commerce, are a sufficient guarantee of the solvency of the company.

We desire at this time to call especial attention to the "Return Premium Plan" which is original with the Universal. Capitalists and business men everywhere are taking hold of it. It is startling to think that 6 per cent compound interest will allow the company not only to pay the amount assured at death, but to return also all the premiums paid into the company.

We predict for this company a brilliant success in North and South Carolina under the management of Caldwell & Brenizer.—Charlotte Times.

From the Washington Express.

A colored man in this city recently was lectured by a Radical politician for becoming "restive in the traces." The colored man replied:

"Under your teaching we have alienated from us the mass of the white people North as well as South; you have got the offices and emoluments, while we have done the work and stand out in the cold. For one, I am done with you."

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.—A gentleman of this city, just returned from Winchester, Va., informs us that nearly every soldier of Colonel Franklin's command, stationed there, is in possession of one of the Seymour and Blair badges, which fact indicates the political sentiment of the "boys in blue," whom Grant depends on as a measure for his political elevation to the White House.

There is great demoralization among the negroes, and they are deserting the leagues of the League by scores. For all of which signs in our political horizon we are down right thankful.—Southern Opinion.

Grant has kindly recommended that all persons now in prison under operation of the Reconstruction laws be released where those laws have ceased to be in operation. Or, in other words, now that they cannot be held, he is willing to let 'em go. Astounding magnanimity.—N. Y. World.

The Radical doctrine is that if a thing is done it mustn't be undone, no matter how bad it is. "If a knife is stuck in a man you must let it stay there. You mustn't pluck it out and try and heal the wound."—N. Y. World.

Dana's Life of Grant contains a chapter entitled "Gen. Grant as a Statesman." Prentice says: Not more absurd would be, in a piscatory work, a chapter entitled "The Sardine as a Whale."

"When the storm is over, the Conservative party, representing, as it does, THE PROPERTY AND INTELLIGENCE OF THE STATE, will take the guidance of affairs, AND ALL WILL BE WELL"—Judge Pearson's Letter.

FROM WASHINGTON—THE "LOIL" GOVERNORS, &C.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17, P. M.

Attorney-General Evarts' opinion is published. It favors the President's power to appoint a Collector of New Orleans and officers for Alaska, terminating with the next session of the Senate.

Rollins has returned, and, it is authoritatively announced that he has no intention of vacating his office, except to a successor acceptable to the Radical party.

The Star "says": "Several new Governors of the Southern States have recently made requisitions on the Secretary of War for arms, under the law passed in 1795, but the Secretary has decided not to furnish until further legislation is had on the subject. The Governors, in consequence, have united in an appeal to Congress, to meet on the day to which they have adjourned, to take action in the matter."

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA—THE LEGISLATURE.

COLUMBIA, Aug. 17, P. M.

The House passed a bill, putting negroes in the State on an equal footing with the whites—negro members demanding a right to Hotel tables, beds and all licensed places. Several white Republicans voted against it, declaring that on the question of race, they must go with their own color.

Seventy sections of the tax law passed without opposition to-day. The majority was too ignorant to discuss it. The State is practically bankrupt. The Governor can raise no funds.

FROM RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Aug. 17, P. M.

J. M. Hamilton, Collector of this port and member of the city council, was removed from the latter position, by military authority, to-day.

ROBBERY OF A BANK.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 17, P. M.

The "Peoples Bank" was entered last night.—The vault was robbed. Loss unknown, as the special depositors are absent.

REMAINS OF THAD. STEVENS AT LANCASTER.

LANCASTER, Aug. 17, P. M.

The escort of honor, composed of the officers of the Butler Zouaves, (colored,) which accompanied the body of Mr. Stevens from Washington, left here this A. M., on their return.

It appears that considerable feeling was excited here by their presence,—many Republicans regarding it as inappropriate. On the start, this A. M., the negro officers attracted considerable attention—farmers and others gazing at them with a sort of wild curiosity and wonder!!!

At the funeral, to-day, an immense crowd was present.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR FEMALE RISKS.

LOSSES PAID IN THIRTY DAYS.

No Restrictions on Travel or Residence

OF NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The Business of this Company is exclusively confined to the Insurance of First Class, healthy lives.

The Distinctive Feature

Of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual is a low rate of premium, for stated sums insured, which is immediate, sure and certain in lieu of a high rate of premium and promised dividend, which is distant, contingent and uncertain—this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

NOTE.—The premiums charged by the "UNIVERSAL" are nearly one-third lower than those charged by the Mutual Companies.

The "UNIVERSAL" desires to call the particular attention of Agents and others to the new "Return Premium Table," which has been prepared by the Actuary of the Company. It will be noticed that these rates average less than the ordinary rates charged by Mutuals. The inducements offered by this table are equal to a reversionary dividend of one hundred per cent. of all premiums paid.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death, with a Return of all Premiums paid.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate	Ten Payments Rate	AGE	Ordinary Life Rate	Ten Payments Rate
25	$21 50	$27 48	45	$33 48	$72 18
30	25 50	43 10	50	74 57	104 27
35	31 94	51 68	55	108 27	143 36
40	40 97	63 49	60	183 2	201 07

Example.—A man aged 30 insures his life for $1,000, and pays 43 10 per annum on the 10 pay men plan, and dies after having paid five annual payments, or $215,50, his policy will be good for $1,215 50.

NON-FORFEITING CASH RATES

OF THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $10,000,000

$130 to pay every 100 of Liabilities.

DIVIDEND, Fifty per Cent. 57,000 Members, and constantly increasing.

DESCRIPTION OF POLICIES.

First.—Whole Life Policies.

Second.—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term; or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the published rates, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made, the dividends will always be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a percentage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby, will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

This system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON FORFEITURE RULES.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payments, as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends then accumulated, will purchase—taken as a single net premium—upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy shall be forfeited by an exposure of the assured life in violation of the conditions expressed therein, unless death shall occur THEREON OR IN CONSEQUENCE of such exposure, when the full Cash Value of the Policy, together with all accumulations from dividends, will be paid upon its surrender.

INCREASE OF INSURANCE.

Applications to increase the sum insured on any life will always be considered as applications for new insurance, and, therefore, no increase of insurance will be granted unless the unimpaired condition of the assured life shall have been proved by medical re-examination.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the returns of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys draws from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS FOR CLUBS.

We have received letters from several sources, requesting us to send printed copies of a Constitution and By-Laws for the organization of Seymour and Blair Clubs.—Having none on hand, and no funds to print them, we have prepared the following Constitution and By Laws, as a guide for Clubs, and submit them to the consideration of our friends. They were submitted to the Young Men's meeting to form a Seymour and Blair Club, in this city, on Tuesday night, and unanimously adopted:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1st. This Association shall be styled the ——— Club of ——— of North Carolina.

ART. 2. The objects of this Association are as follows: To unite in close political compact every Democrat, Conservative, or by whatever name known, in North Carolina, for the support and defence of the Constitution of the United States; the promotion of the peace and good will of society and the harmony of the Union; the proper enforcement of law and order by legitimate forms, and the utter destruction of Radicalism every where by the election of HORATIO SEYMOUR, of New York, as President, and FRANCIS P. BLAIR, of Missouri, as Vice President, and all other Democratic and Conservative nominees for any office; and, further, to promote the mutual benefit and protection of each other in all lawful pursuits, aiding each other in business, as being members of one great political family, seeking to promote each other's welfare, and especially to extend such aid to those who have been or may be ignored or proscribed by the Radical party, as the Association may be able.

ART. 3. The officers of this Club shall consist of a President, three Vice Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall perform the duties pertaining to such offices, and who together with Five Directors, shall be elected annually at the annual meeting of the Association, and shall constitute an Executive Board, to whom shall be committed the interests of the Club.

ART 4. This Constitution, and such By-Laws or Regulations as the Club may adopt may be altered, amended or changed at any public meeting of the Club by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

SUBSCRIPTION.

We, whose names are hereto annexed, do solemnly pledge our word and sacred honor, constantly and faithfully to promote the objects and aims of this Club as set forth in the foregoing Constitution, and do hold ourselves ready to defend the same, and to protect, to the extent of our ability, every member of this Association throughout the State.

BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

1. Every member of this Club shall sign and subscribe the Constitution, in order to recognition.

2. All monied contributions to the objects of the Association shall be voluntary, and shall be held by the Treasurer, who shall keep an exact account and disburse the same only on the order of the Executive Board, to whom he shall submit his accounts when ordered.

3. The Club shall order its public meetings when and where it chooses, and the President may call meetings when desirable, but the Executive Board, or such of its members as may be designated, shall select speakers and make all necessary arrangements.

4. Each member of the Executive Board is hereby appointed a Committee to solicit names for member-ship, also monied donations for the objects of the Club, and to attend to the general interests of the Club, such as directing the correspondence, procuring and circulating documents, &c.

5. The Executive Board shall meet to transact the private business of the Club as often as it may order (and the officers of the Club shall be ex-officio officers of the Board); when the names of members shall be presented for registration or dismissal for good cause, to consider the financial business of the Club and such other private matters as may be necessary. All members of the Club may attend the private meetings of the Board when convenient, and may give counsel, but the business of the Board will be determined by the vote of the Board itself.

6. Any member of the Club intending to move to any other section may obtain a certificate of his membership in the Club, if he desire it, to be signed by the President and Secretary.

7. The Executive Board of each Club will give special attention to all matters of registration, voting, &c., see that all do their duty, and that the law is strictly observed, that all fraud or mal-practice is detected and duly punished.

REMARKS.

1. In South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and other Southern States, strong Democratic Clubs are being formed, composed of colored citizens. The Constitution above is so worded that it can be adapted to any place or persons. If Democratic Clubs can be formed entirely of colored persons, perhaps it will be best; but where there are few, the Clubs may decide to enter them on their registers or not, as they may elect.

2. We would suggest that Young Men's Clubs, everywhere, should embrace all young men, from 18 years of age, and upwards. Many old men are faint-hearted, timid, afraid to let people know their political status. Take in the young men, who have the pluck, and who may be educated to love the Constitution and the country, and who will always vote right, when they become of age. We need the ardor and boldness of youth, as well as the prudence and wisdom of age. The necessity for this, however, would be obviated, if the young men, under the age of 21, would form Clubs of their own.

3. We insist upon forming Clubs in every Ward, in every precinct and Captain's District in the State, where 25 or 30 members, and as many more as possible, can be obtained. The more the better. The talent and energy of all our people must be brought out. It will not do to let the old men and the old party managers do all the managing and the talking. We must put every man in some position to be useful. By having a Club in every Ward and every neighborhood, we can find room for a great many as officers and talkers and working men. We can have our Club meetings out of doors, these pleasant nights, by moonlight or camp fires, and there will be a chance for every man, who can make a talk, or a little speech, or a great speech, to do something in that line. Let the Clubs be formed. Bring out all our men to work for the Constitution and the country, and let us save them by the election of Seymour and Blair!

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B, except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
